

Pythian Bruce Nelson honored for Volunteer Service to the Community Receives Supreme Chancellor's Volunteer Award at Upstate Investiture

October 18, 2009

Past Assistant Deputy to the Chief Deputy Grand Chancellor Bruce Nelson receives the Supreme Chancellor's Volunteer Award at the upstate investiture from Grand Vice Chancellor Mike Sukenick.

Supreme Chancellor, Sir Dan Cowan set a goal of two million (2,000,000) volunteer hours given by members of the Pythian Order for the period August, 2008 to July, 2010. Bruce's dedicated service includes volunteering as webmaster for the Supreme Lodge website. Bruce hails from Rochester, New York.

To encourage volunteerism SC Cowan awarded Certificates of Honors to those who performed one hundred (100) or more volunteer hours.
