The 2021 Book of Remembrance

Kings FDR Tolerance Foundation of FDR Lodge 613 Book of Remembrance

Dear FDR Lodge members and friends,

We hope this Fourth Annual Kings FDR Tolerance Foundation "Book of Remembrance" will provide a meaningful and solemn opportunity to memorialize beloved family members, loved ones and special friends.

Our faith and heritage encourages us to perpetuate the memories of loved ones by giving charity during the High Holy Days.

For those of you who cannot get to services during the holidays, you will be able to use this publication at home to recite the Yizkor payers.

The Book of Remembrance represents one of the traditions that we can be proud of. A copy of each Book of Remembrance gets mailed with our September bulletin ("The Beam").

Donations (all tax deductible) to Kings FDR Tolerance Foundation help us continue to support our charitable goals.

Thank you to everyone who supported this initial effort including PCDCS Robert Kaufman, past president of our Foundation, who coordinated all donations and outreach and CGTrib Corey Bearak, Executive Secretary to the Grand Chancellor, who put this booklet together.

Fraternally,

PC Ira Spiegel, President, Kings FDR Tolerance Foundation

A Message from The Book of Remembrance Committee

It is a Jewish tradition to honor the memory of our loved ones in our thoughts and prayers, as well as through acts of charity. The memorial service called "Yizkor" - to remember - is part of the prayer services four times during the year (Pesach, Shavuot, Yom Kippur & Sukkot).

The virtue of pledging charity during Yizkor creates an opportunity for the souls of our loved ones to be connected with us through tangible acts of goodness and kindness. One way to honor this tradition is through the publishing of a Yizkor Memorial Book.

This booklet gives us the opportunity to memorialize and lovingly remember those who shaped our lives. It include prayers and meditations of the Yizkor Service. THANK YOU for your support. Shana Tova.

The Meaning of Yizkor

Yizkor, in Hebrew, means "Remember." It is not only the first word of the prayer, it also represents its overall theme. In this prayer, we implore G-d to remember the souls of our relatives and friends that have passed on. When we recite Yizkor, we renew and strengthen the connection between us and our loved one, bringing merit to the departed souls, elevating them in their celestial homes.

The main component of Yizkor is our private pledge to give charity following the holiday in honor of the deceased. By giving charity, we are performing a positive physical deed in this world, something that the departed can no longer do.

The soul gains additional merit if the memory of its good deeds spur their loved ones to improve their ways.

Who Says Yizkor

It is customary for those with both parents alive to leave the synagogue during the Yizkor service. A mourner during the first year remains in the synagogue, but does not recite the Yizkor. Some kindle a 24-hour Yizkor candle (before the holiday).

In addition to reciting Yizkor for one's parents, one may recite Yizkor for any Jew who has passed on, including relatives and friends. When reciting Yizkor for more than one person, repeat the Yizkor paragraph each time, and substitute the words "Aböh Mori" (my father), or "Imi Morösi" (my mother), with the appropriate title, as follows: For a Husband: "Ba-ali." Son: "B'ni." Brother: "Öchi." Uncle: "Dodi." Grandfather: "Z'kainy." Wife: "Ishti." Daughter: "Biti." Sister: "Achosi." Aunt: "Dodosi." Grandmother: "Z'ken-ti."
